RACE RULES

- Pacing or companion runners are not allowed.
- Unregistered runners are not allowed.
- Numbers must be worn on the front and be visible at all times.
- Runners must follow the marked trail, and proceed without unauthorized physical or mechanical assistance from others.
- Race officials will determine order of finish if runners cross the finish line together.
- Runners must give passing room as soon as reasonably possible to a runner who asks for the trail.
- Please do not run additional training miles on the course on race day because it compromises the safety and enjoyment of the race for others.
- Runners must complete the distance they sign up for to receive an award.
- For safety, runners who withdraw during the run must inform a race official or aid station volunteer.
- No littering, smoking or consumption of alcohol permitted on the course.

Race Director reserves the right to remove any competitor from the race and race course for whatever reason deemed necessary.
