

Card and Coin Trick

This is a showy little trick with a bit of juggling that is difficult yet easily learned. With the help of your child, balance a card on the tip of your left forefinger. Upon it place a coin, the heavier the better. With your right forefinger flip the card, and it will sail away across the room, leaving the coin balanced on your finger. Once you have the knack, you can do it every time.

Checkerboard Puzzle

The problem is to place eight checkers on a checkerboard so that no two checkers will be on a line either horizontally, vertically or diagonally. Use both black and red squares. Solution: Father and child place checkers on numbers 5-15-18-30-35-41-56-60.

Chinese Push Up

Father and child sit on the floor, back to back, with arms locked. They attempt to stand up without releasing arms. Solution: It's done by pushing against each other and bringing feet close to the body.

The Coin on the Forehead

This is an amusing trick. Place a coin against your forehead, and it remains there, as though magnetized. Simply place the coin against the forehead and push it upward about an inch, with pressure. The coin will remain there on its own.

Coin Puzzle

Father and child place eight coins in a row. The idea is to take a coin, jump over two coins and place it on top. Then take another coin, jump over two more coins and place it on top. The object is to finish up with four double coins like "Kings" in checkers. You must jump two each time. When a coin becomes a King it is counted as two coins. Solution: Move 5 to 2, 3 to 7, 8 to 6, 1 to 4.

Corkscrew

Cut String Restored

Here's a simple and highly effective trick which is quite mystifying when you do not know the secret.

Trick: A borrowed piece of string is knotted. It is now doubled and cut. The four ends are visible. The string is then restored to one

People are alike in their promises. It is only in their deeds that they differ.
